

BOARD SPOTLIGHT

Laci Ingels (secretary)

Hometown museum: High Plains Museum

How I came to be in McCook: I was born here. 4th generation in this area.

Other McCook Activities: MCC theater, work at Community Hospital, following my kids' activities

Something you may not know about me: I speak four dialects (for theater).

How I came to be on the HPHS Board: recruited by Jamie Mockry after volunteering as part of Southwest Nebraska Leadership Institute

One dream for the museum: increasing activities and events for kids/teens to get them to understand our local history.

YEARBOOK SEARCH

The museum is in need of a McCook High School 1964 yearbook in good condition. Let the site manager know if you have one on your shelf.

NEW STAINED GLASS

Be sure to stop by the church display in the museum to see the stained glass window created by John Clesson specifically for that space.

UPCOMING HOLIDAY EVENTS

Sunday, October 27 2-4 pm

Museum ~~Spook~~stacular

Saturday, November 2 4-6 pm

Dia de los Muertos (Day of the Dead)

Friday, December 13 Flat Water Jazz

Christmas concert

7:30 – 9:15 pm free will donations

Saturday, December 14 1-3 pm

Jingle Jangle Jamboree

Sunday, December 15 2-4pm

gift wrapping fund raiser

SHELDON ART EXHIBIT

The Museum will again be hosting the Sheldon Art Exhibit. This year's theme is "Finding Horizons". It will be available for viewing during open hours November 5 – 28. To schedule a group tour, contact Linda Buck, site manager at 345-3661. The first viewing will be for MEMBERS ONLY at a wine and cheese reception from 4 – 6 On Sunday, November 3. Sign up now to receive your invitation in the mail!

All rails lead to the Museum of the High Plains